

Form A

This document is Form A as indicated in section 3.3(1) of the local Zoning Bylaw. Please fill out one of either the Development Permit Application or the Discretionary Use Application. If you are unsure which form your development applies to, please contact your local municipality or WaterWolf Planning.

Development Permit Application Form

The Zoning Bylaw provides for permitted and discretionary forms of development in each zoning district. Every person is required to obtain a development permit before commencing any construction or use of land except as provided within the bylaw.

A development permit is not required for the following, but all other applicable provisions of the local zoning bylaw are to be followed:

- a) principle agricultural uses, exclusive of any Intensive Livestock Operation (ILO) or intensive agricultural use
- b) farm buildings and structures where accessory to a permitted agricultural use or existing farmstead; excluding any ILO structure, intensive agricultural structure, small wind energy system, or a new dwelling
- c) manure application in accordance with Section 4.9 of the local zoning bylaw
- d) public utilities: any operation for the purposes of inspecting, repairing, or renewing sewage systems, water mains, cables, pipes, wires, tracks or similar public works as required by a public utility, and the installation of service connections to property in the Municipality (excluding the installation of new transmission lines)
- e) municipal facilities: any facility installed and operated by the Municipality
- f) signs: subject to the provisions of Section 4.5 of the local zoning bylaw.

Application Fees

A building permit is separate from a development permit. A development permit acknowledges the use of land and buildings and its compliance with the Official Community Plan and Zoning Bylaw. A building permit refers to building construction and compliance with the National Building Code of Canada and is governed by the Municipal Building Bylaw.

Discretionary Use Application Form

The zoning bylaws enforced within the WaterWolf Planning District provides for discretionary land use and development which are deemed by local councils to have one or more features or potential effects that warrant a proposal-specific review and which specifically require approval by a resolution of Council prior to initiating any activity or building construction.

Types of principal and accessory discretionary use development are dependent on local zoning bylaws section 7, Zoning District Schedules. Please refer to your local zoning bylaw, municipal administrator or the WaterWolf Planning Commission, to determine if your proposed development is discretionary.

An applicant proposing a development involving a principal discretionary use, as defined within the Zoning Bylaw shall be subject to a $200.00 application fee, and a $100.00 application fee for an accessory discretionary use, as prescribed by the Zoning Bylaw.

In addition to the above noted fees, the applicant shall be solely responsible for all costs associated with:

- a. satisfying council's public notification policy;
- b. engagement of the necessary planning, engineering, legal or other professional expertise necessary to review an application and/or implement Council's decision; and
- c. registration of an interest on the title of the property proposed for development as prescribed by the Information Services Corporation (Land Titles).

The Municipality or the WaterWolf Planning Commission may at its discretion require a discretionary use proponent to provide a retainer in the amount of $400.00 to be applied to the professional costs identified above.

Application Requirements

The following is required in order to make an application:

- e) a completed application form

Public Notification

Once the WaterWolf Planning Commission has deemed the information provided as complete, a copy of the applicants letter and site plan will be provided to various provincial departments, public agencies and to all landowners within 1.6 kilometer radius of the subject property

All the above contacts will be provided with a maximum 21 days from the date of mailing to provide written comments on the proposed use. A contact number for the applicant will be included with the disbursement to permit direct contact to discuss any concerns that may arise as a result of the notification. Any written comments received will be included in the report provided to council.

Decision Time Frame

The timing associated with the notification, review and approval process will solely on the completeness and quality of information provided. Generally, once the required time for receiving responses to the written notifications has elapsed, a report is generated and presented to council on behalf of the applicant by the WaterWolf Planning Commission at the next regularly scheduled meeting at which time a decision is made. Under normal conditions the process can be completed within 45 days of receiving completed application.

A full summary of the discretionary use process is appended to this application form.

Appeals

Council may approve the application, reject the application or approve the application with conditions, including a condition limiting the length of time that the use may be conducted on the site in order to secure the objectives of the zoning bylaw.

The Planning and Development Act, 2007 limits the ability for an applicant to only appeal any conditions of approval applied by council. There is no ability to appeal council's refusal of a discretionary use application.

The notice of appeal must be provided to the Development Appeals Board Secretary along with the required fee no later than 30 days from receiving a copy of the written decision from council.
