Town of Rose Valley – Community Profile

Located in east-central Saskatchewan at the crossroads of Highway 35 and Grid Road 756, the Town of Rose Valley is a welcoming rural community rich in agricultural heritage and small-town character.

History

- Settled by Norwegian and Ukrainian pioneers around 1904–1905
- Canadian Pacific Railway arrived in 1924, helping the town flourish
- Incorporated as a village in 1940 and became a town in 1962

Economy & Services

- Based on grain and livestock farming
- Rose Valley School serves Kindergarten to Grade 12 students from surrounding communities
- Offers recreational facilities, a health centre, public library, and local businesses

Attractions

- Rose Valley & District Heritage Museum displays restored buildings and antique farming tools

For more information, upcoming events, and municipal services, visit the official Town of Rose Valley website.